

LET THE RAIN COME

LYRICS

Faceless pictures, empty eyes
A streaming river full of lies
Invisible for the outside
Defenseless fighting their fight

Can't you see your lies are strangling me
Don't use me just let me be
Want to break out of your dark wonderland
If you want truth just take his hand

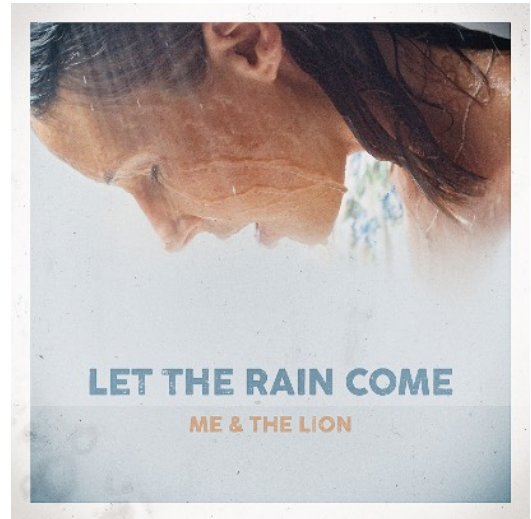

Because
Let the rain come let it pour
I know what my life is for
I won't go back anymore
Like the sunshine I will rise
I am through with all those lies
The endless truth will never die

The son of man will guide my way
Here and now is where I'll stay
The greatest strength is fearless purity
Only truth can set you free

Blinded eyes will never see
All the things I long to be
I can choose my destiny
Only you can make me whole
Stronger than I was before
I came that far so you can free my soul
